THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 27, 1848.

DUTY OF THE COMMON COUNCIL What is to be the outcome of the disclosures of corruption and venality on the part of the of the city? At first view most persons would be likely to think that proof of this scandalons affair ought to throw him cut of office. They reach this conclusion because they feel metinotively that one who has so dishon ored himself and the position he holds ought not to be permitted to remain in a place c dislinction and trust. But how is he to be got out of it? That contract is a most shamefu one, It was, indeed, the stepping stone by which he sched the position, it was a conspiracy against tion that Besser, as superintendent of sizeets, would be permitted to rob the city of monoy h to pay the mayor sud to reim All this is plainty within the otuniv true still the question presentanteel: now is the mayor to be reached and dea t with? eld but what is the law to do about it? Men who are so deprayed as to do such things care very little for public opinion. D. aboutor them is a meaningless word. If therefore dus in itself nothing that the law can take nit of course-perhaps impossible-to prove the chain will not be complete in law, however rams he corraptly agreed to receive, or o her crimes in all these crimes there is a presums since sought by sum values and case, nottaily been paid to him. But in any case, and whatever may be the avent, the common and it is impossible to yield to that motive council should order an inquiry. It is it duty without at the same time seating the constitut tioned in his ante-election contract The e are not with Benner was the basis of that seeme light into deck holes whose oprings are v t un-
